What is College Goal Sunday?

College Goal Sunday is a nationwide program that provides information and assistance to Maine students and their families applying for financial aid for higher education. College financial aid officers and other qualified professionals volunteer their time to help college-bound students complete the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid), which is the required federal financial aid form.

When is College Goal Sunday?

Maine's 7th Annual College Goal Sunday will be held on January 31, 2010 and begins at 2:00 p.m. at various locations across Maine.

Who Should Attend College Goal Sunday?

Students and families who need help completing the FAFSA form for the upcoming academic year.

Do I need to register?

Pre-registration is encouraged but not required. If you provide an e-mail address with your registration, you will receive e-mail reminders before the event.

What do I need to bring?

Students and their parents should bring their most recent tax information, such as completed IRS 1040 tax returns, W-2 statements and other income and benefits information.

Who can I contact if I have questions?

College Goal Sunday is administered by the Finance Authority of Maine (FAME). Anyone interested in learning more about College Goal Sunday can contact us at 1-800-228-3734 or visit our Web site www.collegegoalsundaymaine.com.
